Dear colleagues,

We are proud to announce the 14th Swiss PostASCO event. The Swiss PostASCO is an annual meeting in Switzerland to enable easy access to scientific news and state of the art interpretation of new data.

Nationally renowned speakers, experts in the field and young academics will present the data from the ASCO20 Virtual Meeting, along with their interpretation, to an audience of specialists. In addition, there will be an opportunity for the audience to actively engage in a critical review of the data.

We are looking forward to meeting you for high-level scientific discussions of interesting topics.
