26 October 2023

ESMO in the Alps brings the highlights and practice-changing studies of the ESMO Congress 2023 to Switzerland.

- > As leading specialists in their respective fields, Swiss experts screen the ESMO program and select the most relevant studies for your daily practice.
- > Follow and discuss the new data in genitourinary cancer, gastrointestinal cancer, breast and gynecologic cancers, lung cancer and other hot topics.
- > Enjoy an in-person experience, accompanied by unique networking opportunities at Kultur- und Kongresszentrum (KKL) in Lucerne.
- > Save time and money - register only for the sessions you are interested in.

Find the programme and more information for your registration online at medtoday.ch/congresses/esmoita23
